ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT OUR VIRTUAL COMPETITIONS:

Accompaniment:

- Accompaniment is NOT required. Students may perform works for flute with or without accompaniment.
- If a piece is written with accompaniment, you may either:
  - a) Perform without accompaniment (please observe rests of two measures or less).
  - b) Perform with recorded accompaniment or SmartMusic, or
  - c) Perform with accompaniment (live pianist, observing appropriate social distancing practices).

***There is NO penalty for performing without accompaniment.*****

Submitting your application and recordings:

- You may use whatever device is easiest for you with the best sound quality available: phone, tablet, computer, etc.
- At the beginning of your recording(s) you must say: "This is my entry for the RFA Virtual Performance Competition," followed by your name, category, and title/composer of your piece(s).
- The recording must be done in one take with no edits, but can be two separate recordings/links for each submitted piece.
- Do not add reverb to your recording.
- Upload your video to YouTube (or other open sharing platform). Test your link before submitting.
- Be sure you also submit and mail your fee and application found on our website, rfaonline.org
- If possible, upload a scanned copy of the music (flute and piano). It can be attached as a PDF or shared as a GoogleDrive link. This is not required, but as in a live competition it does help the judges provide more thorough comments. These files should be deleted after the winners are announced.
- EMAILING: The subject must read "Name, Category, Competition Submission". The body of the email should be bulleted with your full name, phone number, email address, category, titles of all applicable pieces, and the link(s) to your performance(s). Each piece performed may be a separate recording/video link. Attach PDFs/links of the music if available. Email your full submission (no separate emails please) to rochesterfluteassociation@gmail.com.

Recording Tips

- Find a quiet space for your recording.
- Please limit visual distractions such as highly decorated walls and personal items.
- Dress nicely, as you would for a live competition.
- Try to place as much of your body and instrument into the frame as possible.
- Use an external mic to improve your sound quality if possible. (not required)
- Listen to your recording before you hit submit.
