Landell Flute Embouchure Gauge

Value: $50

Donated by: Jonathan Landell

<https://www.landellflutes.com>

As a flutist and head joint maker, Jonathan Landell's goal has been to determine the ideal size and shape of embouchure for each of his customers. Each flutist has unique physical attributes, has obtained a certain level of technical playing, and may even have a unique concept of tone. An individual's unique attributes impact the dimensions of their optimal head joint. He developed this gauge to measure the 4 important dimensions of a flute's embouchure hole; learn more about it at the Landell exhibit table!

COA by THE FLUTE DOC

One Clean, Oil, and Adjust or discount on an overhaul of equivalent value.

Value: Variable depending on flute to be serviced. Student flute - $195, Intermediate flute - $325, Professional flute - $395, Custom flute - $445 (Not sure what your flute is? Stop by the Flute Doc table in the exhibit hall!)

Description: A Clean, Oil, and Adjust (COA) is the yearly recommended service to keep your flute functioning smoothly and singing beautifully. This will be provided by a Rochester local flute specialist who knows all the ins and outs to bringing out your flute's potential. In the event that a flute's condition has reached the point where an overhaul is required a discount equivalent to the COA value will be provided instead. An overhaul is a full reset for the instrument where all the stops are pulled to make the instrument like new again.
