

♪ Music Master Class and Lecture@ "La Mélodieuse" in the Luberon ♪

organized by Yuko Uébayashi, composer

Since 1998 I have lived in Paris and I met various musicians. I lived with music and I created my pieces there. During that time, I am very grateful that many people from all over the world have performed my pieces, sympathizing with my music.

In 2018, after 20 years in Paris, I moved to a small village called Puget in the Luberon, Provence, South France for my new step in my life.

Here, the pleasant wind that blows down under the clear blue sky sounds pine needles, and at night the full starry sky where the flow of the galaxy can be seen spreads. When the season comes, the flowers of red poppy and Lavender bloom, and it is a daily life to live with the blessings of nature such as fresh fruits, vegetables and herbs. The Luberon is full of the energy of nature and the joy of life.

Through my life here, I have come to want to share and transmit the joy of music in this surroundings. Now I can deeply understand why Sviatoslav Richter chose The Luberon for the place of the now-famous "Festival International de Piano de la Roque d'Anthéron". I'm currently building a music salon in our home for a small concert. I named here "La Mélodieuse".

At this "La Mélodieuse", a new type of class will be held since the summer of 2020. Regardless of amateur, professional, age, performance level, or instrumentation, I would like to meet a variety of people who loves here.

The purpose of this class is ;

"Discovering and sharing the joy of music in the clear air of The Luberon with musicians, students, villagers, and visitors from all over the world."

"I would like to listen to the performance of my pieces directly and coach it so that people can understand my pieces more clearly and at the same time find out the music of the performers themselves"

I believe.
